

D. Information and Instructions for Applicant

1. All information called for should be furnished against the relevant items in the prescribed forms. If for any reason, information is provided in a separate sheet, this fact should be mentioned against the relevant column. Even if no information is to be provided in a column, a 'nil' or "no such case" entry should be made in that column. If any particulars/query is not applicable in case of the applicant, it should be stated as "not applicable". The applicants are cautioned that not giving complete information called for in the application forms or not giving it in clear terms or making any change in the prescribed forms or deliberately suppressing the information may result in the applicant being summarily disqualified. Applications made by telegram or telex and those received late will not be entertained.
 2. The applicant should sign each page of the application.
 3. Overwriting should be avoided. Correction, if any, should be made by neatly crossing out, initialling, dating and rewriting. Pages need to be numbered. Additional sheets, if any added by the service provider, should also be numbered by him.
 4. References, information and certificates from the respective clients certifying suitability and capability of the applicant should be duly signed.
 5. The applicant may furnish any additional information which he thinks is necessary to establish the capabilities of the firm to successfully complete the envisaged work. It is, however, advised not to furnish superfluous information. No information shall be entertained after submission of EOI document unless it is called for by C-DOT.
 6. Any information furnished by the applicant found to be incorrect either immediately or at a later date, would render him liable to the termination of the contract.
 7. Any effort on the part of the applicant or his agent to exercise influence or to pressurize C-DOT would result in rejection of his application.
 8. Any application received after deadline for submission of bid prescribed by C-DOT will be rejected.
 9. The IP service providers will have to give presentation to C-DOT about their proposal on a suitable date, in case requested by C-DOT.
 10. C-DOT reserves the right to reject any/all the bids in part/or in full without assigning any reason.
 11. The decision of C-DOT in this regard will be final and binding. The same cannot be challenged in any forum.
