

Case No. 4 CCRP 04 2023-- development of Holographic communication system

Title	Research program for Holographic communication system
Description	The next generation 6G communication systems will be based on holographic techniques. Define and execute the Research program for developing Holographic techniques for future communication products with well defined milestones.